Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders, Says Doctor.

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Power of Athletes

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate Nervous Run-Down People 200 Per Cent. Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Hauer, a specialist who has studied both in this country and Europe, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weak, nervous condition, they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. "This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day, after meals, for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people, who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance, and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fifteen days' time, simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been doctoring for months, without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old form of iron, simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated, like nuxated iron, if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he had enough iron in his blood to enable him to fight longer, and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Hauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older iron compounds, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, makes the blood, purifies the stomach, on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy to nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous run-down conditions. The Corporation has made great efforts to make Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100,000 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any iron or nuxated iron, or the iron, and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time. It is the only iron, and the only iron, that has no serious organic impurities. They also offer to forfeit $100,000 if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in six days' time. It is dissolved by all druggists.—Adv.

MRS. HUNTER GAVE KERFOOT MONEY TO DO THE MARKETING

Wife of Plaintiff in $50,000 Alienation Suit Tells How Household Was Run.

Mrs. Anne Belleville Hunter, wife of Frederick William Hunter, plaintiff in the $50,000 alienation suit against his former friend and classmate, John Barrett Kerfoot, to-day resumed the witness stand before Supreme Court Justice Cohan and a jury and stoutly defended Kerfoot.

"During the twenty years that Kerfoot was a member of your household did he ever contribute anything for rent, board or lodging?" asked Mr. Norwood, counsel for Hunter. "No," admitted Mrs. Hunter. "When he went abroad whose money did he use?" "His wife's," answered Mrs. Hunter. "She left it to him."

Mrs. Hunter admitted that her husband gave her $500 a month to run the house and $100 for her personal expenses. She said that she in turn, gave Kerfoot $117.50 a month and that he purchased the meat, groceries and vegetables. He never made an accounting of the money he was given, she added.

"Who bought the wines and cigars," asked Mr. Norwood. "Mr. Hunter,"

"Who bought the cocktails?" "Mr. Kerfoot sometimes bought cocktails."

Mrs. Hunter did not know whether it was Kerfoot's own money that paid for these, or the cash Hunter gave for running the household. She admitted that Kerfoot packed her trunks when she left her husband.

During the testimony Hunter sat at the counsel table and glared at his wife. Mrs. Hunter had been alternated throughout the trial by six women, who listened with the closest attention to the testimony.

Mrs. Hunter testified that Hunter laughed at her one night after he had taken a younger and more attractive woman to the theatre. She said that one day after he had purchased a $1,200 picture she asked him for $25 to go to Atlantic City "to recover her disposition" in a week's vacation and he informed her he could not afford to give her the money.

A letter from Mrs. Hunter to Hunter was introduced in evidence. It read:

"I must make you realize that my decision to leave you is final. I am not going to live with you again. After seeing Norwood. How do you propose to arrange it?"
